ABOUT US

This Is Africa Safaris is owned and operated by A.H van Heerden, established in 2009 and situated in the North Eastern part of South Africa known as the Lowveld, home to the jewel of African game reserves, the Kruger National Park, and South Africa's prime big five destination.

We specialize in hunting safaris in and around the private game reserves in this area, as well as the Limpopo Valley, and the Kalahari in the North West bordering Botswana.

Associated Private Nature Reserve (APNR)

Whether you are interested in hunting elephant, Cape buffalo, pursuing the big cats, or after the abundance of plainsgame that South Africa has to offer, we at This Is Africa Safaris will make sure your safari is an unforgettable one.

Our total concession areas are in excess of 250 000 acres across the Limpopo Lowveld, Limpopo Valley & Kalahari Bushveld.

We cater for the rifle & bowhunter, as well as first time visitors or the seasoned hunter returning to Africa.

For the non hunter we offer Photographic Safaris to the Kruger National Park, sight seeing in and around the Blyde Canyon, or even five star spa treatments. These excursions are very popular as an add on to any safari.

PROPOSED PACKAGES LIMPOPO LOWVELD REGION 2026

Timbavati, Klaserie, Umbabat & Balule form the Association of Private Nature Reserves. The APNR is over 300 000 acres in extent, and is based on the Eastern side of the world famous Kruger National Park, which is situated in the Limpopo and Mpumalanga Provinces of South Africa. There is no boundary fence between the Kruger National Park and the APNR. Together, these areas constitute the Greater Kruger Park, which is over 5 Million acres in size, which is bigger than some countries. The Umbabat Private Nature Reserve and Balule is a prestige environment with no boundary fences or internal fences. This is one of the wildest hunting areas available in South Africa and until recently was only experienced by hunters of a by-gone are. This fantastic area is where This Is Africa Safaris had done most of its big five hunting in the past, and still do even though our quota has decreased over the years. For the discerning hunter or avid photographer, the APNR is an experience of a lifetime, giving one the overall African adventure.

This area is 40 000ha with the greater Kruger National Park. Bookings will be confirmed by a non refundable deposit of all daily rates or 50% of total safari fees. Balance will be payable in full the day before the hunt will commence. A legal hunting contract will be forwarded indicating important information regarding prices, date, daily rates etc. This contract will be signed in advance of any hunt, where after the deposit will be payable. All packages includes daily rates, trophy permit & park fees. Prices exclude VAT, cash payment recommended. Hunting quotas are relatively small considering the quality of game that occurs. As a result hunting pressure on the game population are extremely low. It is a true pleasure & great privilege to hunt in these magnificent game reserves. Hunting proceeds in these reserves are used to manage these reserves and combat poaching.
